Ap kai' sa mid guide

Hello, my name is ChasemorePlz aka Blackhalo. Today I will be showing off Kai'sa build, which is aimed at being snapped ap damage to your team. I play it in the middle of the lane and win my game by getting done however you can also play it in the boot lane! This video will show you everything you need to know about how to start the initial phase as Full AP Kai'Sa. As a gold/sometimes platinum player I'm in no way trying to claim my experience means something of value, but I've seen some great success with Kai's AP lately in the middle and want to encourage others to give it a try. It has always been perceived as a more troll type of thing, but you really feel like such a threat at all stages of the game. For runs, I prefer Fleet Footwork or Dark Harvest depending on the match. Builds are so flexible that you can pretty much build what you want if your W is evolving fast. I carried with gunblade to death dancing to guinsoos, you can just go straight ap poke with Ludens Rush. I feel like I've discovered a new love as a middle laner, so I wanted others to try and figure out what results they have, and for those who have experience with this, do you have any tips?
